

INCREASED SPACE = INCREASED SAFETY + OPPORTUNITY

With safety, comfort and durability in mind, we have tenting options to create a solution for your restaurant. From fast food to fine dining, we can help.

Increased space equals increased safety. It also means additional opportunity. Our products have a long history of covering patios, lawns and parking lots for supplemental seating. In addition, dining customers may show a preference for fresh air seating options. With safety, comfort and durability in mind, we have tenting options to create a solution for your space.
